SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

I recall the spring of 1947, when the graduating Eighth grade classes from around Milford, and of course the Milford Craie School graduating class, were asked to meet in the Gym of the High School one day soon after school was out. The question "why" dashed in all our minds, until we heard the rumor that we were going to practice our graduation march!

After practice and after the confusion was over each girl and each boy headed his own way--just waiting for fall to come when they would become high school students.

Now, fall is here and we thirty-three bashful Freshmen began our first year at M. T. H. S.

As the first weeks were set aside for organizing, we waited until later to elect class officers. With the help of our sponsors, Miss Alderson and Mr. Turnbaugh, we elected Gene Callahan, President; Ivan Cox, Vice President; and Phyllis Beatty, Secretary. Our student council members were Bob Hix and Carolyn Brewer. In October we also chose Queen candidates and King candidates for the Homecoming Dance. The Queen candidates were Phyllis Beatty and Rosanna Hawthorne. Bob Hix and Don Hodge were King candidates.

We had had elections before in grade school, but no such formal meeting as this. We thought we were orderly from grade school days but all of us could see room for improvement.

I regret to say that little headway was made as far as gathering together much money. Of course, you can't expect much from Freshmen, but you could rightfully expect more than we had.

As the year drew to a close we looked forward to summer free from study.

Oh, here's an announcement. Class meetings today fifth hour. Undoubtedly, this is for electing class officers, but who would be good as president and the other offices? It seemed to occur to everyone that Rosanna Hawthorne would fit perfect and so she was elected by a unanimous majority, President. Then came the other offices. We chose Bob Hix, Vice President; Louise Zinn, Secretary-Treasurer. Willis Beatty and David Van Hoven were student council members. Mr. Hitchens and Miss Brunskill served as our new class sponsors.

During the year Gloria Evans and Carolyn Brewer served as assistant cheerleaders.

October now and we must have two candidates to ride in our convertible through town. We chose Phyllis Collins and Lois Van Hoveln. To prepare for this lavish occasion we began decorating our float. The theme was "Cooking Catlins Goose" and, of course, with a little prejudice, we bragged to opposing classes that our float would be the best there. And it must have been because we won first prize. Not only was that a great honor but we also won a five dollar bill.

To increase the cash in our treasury we decided to put on a dance early in spring and call it the Spring Hop. we did make money because the dance was very successful. That money won't be ours long though because here it is the middle of May and when we come back to school next year we should be planning on spending money for Prom decorations.

Back in school again now, we hear whisper's about the Homecoming Dance. We sent an announcement through school telling the classes to elect their queen candidates and to fix a nice float for the parade not forgetting to mention that the first prize would be $5.

The dance the following night of the parade was sure to be fun because we were offering door prizes, corsages, and a wonderful orchestra.

Senior year was filled with numerous decisions that had to be made concerning commencement invitations, class motto, color, and flower, and the type of programs to be passed out to our friends at graduation services. Perhaps the most important decision of all was where to go on our class trip. We decided on New Orleans and are already talking of clothes to take.

Our sponsors this year were Miss Schultheis, Mr. Carpenter, and Mr. Turnbaugh. Don Hodge was President; Gilbert Schleaf, Vice President; and Sandra Love, Secretary-Treasurer. Our Student Council members were Rosanna Hawthorne and Don Buhrmester.

In October we chose Phyllis Collins, Lois Thomsen, and Lois Van Hoveln as our Homecoming Queen Candidates. During the year we staged a play entitled "Skidding" under the direction of our able Speech teacher, Mr. Hike.

So went the class of '51's activities. We've had four wonderful years here, but now we must look forward to a new life keeping in mind our class motto: With the Ropes of the Past We Will Ring the Bells of the Future.

CLASS SONG

THE CLASS OF FIFTY-ONE
(Tune: You'll Never Walk Alone)

When we come to the end of our high school days,
And we start out upon a new life,
Remember that life has a grand reward,
For which every heart should contrive.

Goodbye to our friends,
Goodbye to our mates,
And let's hope to meet again.

Goodbye, Goodbye, we'll see you all again
The Class of Fifty-one,
The Class of Fifty-one

CLASO WILL

We, the Senior class of 1951, being of sound mind and Eileen Jannusch. Neighbor sec, neighbor do.

I, Lois Thomsen, will a portion of my height to Marlene Redeker. She'll be getting up in the world.

I, Don Buhrmester, will my positions in school and my classy (and flashy) socks to Delbert Frerichs.

I, Kenneth Rollins, will by seat in Art class to any at the [redacted] [redacted].

I, Carolyn [redacted], will [redacted] at [redacted] to [redacted] Beatty and to Andy Hassen, my ability to get up at ten to eight and still get to school on time.

I, Carl Smith, will my haircut to Bob Beatty. Keep it trimmed, sonny.

I, Dick Allen, will my ability to get along with my English IV teacher to Walter Orcutt. After all, Walt, I'm passing.

I, Cecil Hartman, have read the foregoing and find that it is true and correct.
What a revoltin' development.

I, Dr. [redacted], will do my best to type it as I hear now to make it. There's something about it, I think, mistakes.

I, Gilbert Schleef, will my singing voice to Gordon Pratt and my ability to play Canasta to Wanda Callahan.

I, Alvin Buss, will my beard (that I have when not shaved) to Bob Crawford. Think he'll ever grow one?

I, Gene Callahan, will try my ability to get along with the girls to Forrest Lewis. Come over some night and I'll show you my technique.

I, Gloria Evans, will my cheerleading outfit to Rose and with my love to the boys and girls of the school.
Bob.

I, Ivan Cox, will my seat in Math class to the next sucker.

I, Dolores Brutlag, will my ability to get by with giggling in school and class to Marilyn.

I, Frieda Luening, will my fun-loving humor to Karen Roeder. The yokes on a pretty good egg.

I, Roy Miller, will my love for football to Andy Harman or anyone else who wants it.

I, Roy Miller, will my artistic ability to Andy Harman. Improve ment?

I, Sandra Lowe, will my love for the boys in Wilford, (Wilford, N.J.), and the ability to. I will be, I will be, I will be to anyone who feels they need either or both.

I, Jerry Jones will my job of transporting boys to general shop to anyone with a car. There's no money in it.

I, Rita Todd, will my ability to carry a tune in a bushel basket to Wanda Callahan.

I, Rosanna Hawthorne, will my ability to play basketball to Dianne Frerichs.

I, Robert Hix, will my inferiority complex to wee Henry Ecker. Here's hoping you do a better job than I did.

I, Phyllis Collins, will my charming personality to some beautiful Freshman girl.

I, Louise Zinn, will all but my interest in the Navy to Gloria Ingalls. Anchors aweigh.

I, Don Hodge, will my bright colored T shirts with the pretty girls to Bill Hayslett.

I, Evelyn Esterbrook, will my ability to make eyes at the boys to Elaine Lehmann.

I, Bob McCoy, will my ability to high jump to Wayne Rotgeb. It's one way of getting up in the world.

And lastly, I, Dave Van Hoven, will the writing of this to all the students to help them to write the job.

CLASS PROPHECY

Here it is 1961. Just ten years since I graduated from M. T. H. S. Thinking back over the last ten years of my life I decided to take a trip and find out what my former classmates were doing. I didn't know just where to start so I got on an airplane and flew to Washington D. C. I arrived there early in the morning and was greeted by Gene Callahan, Cadillac and all. In the recent November election, he was elected President of the United States. He went, of course. But the first lady, too. You guessed it, she was Gene's high school sweetheart, Maralyn Lauterbach.

Leaving here after a very enjoyable time, I traveled to Hollywood to see how Bob Dix and Alvin Foss were doing. They've been in the recent musical which just came back, "South Pacific". Bob sings while Alvin dances. Smash hit, too.

I wasn't a bit surprised when I got into Great Lakes to see Phyllis Williams, the former Phyllis Collins and her husband, Admiral Williams living in the officers quarters. Phyllis and I talked over old-times and to my surprise she told me Louise Ferdinand, nee Louise Einn, visited her a week ago while her husband was there on special orders. Oh! Yes! Louise also had along her four boys. Phyllis put me on one of her husband's best ocean liners and I ended up in France.

It has always been my ambition to attend an opera so while I was in Paris I went. And who do you think was the star of that opera? Madam Rita Tonn. She has fulfilled her life-long ambition, went to music school, and is now one of the great stars in the entertainment world.

From Paris I flew by airplane back to the United States. While riding in the plane it was my privilege to visit the cockpit. There in the pilot's seat was none other than Carl "Butter" Smith. He told me he had been flying for United Airlines for five years now. He also has a small cottage in San Francisco, California where he and his little blond-headed wife live. Upon my arrival there I went a few days and then journeyed on my way to Texas.

As I arrived in Houston I was greeted by Lois Van Hoveln, now Lois Tucker, and she took me out to her ranch which covers several thousand acres. She took me all over it in her new station wagon and showed me their huge herds of cattle. Oh! Yes! There were also two little cowboys running around.

From Houston, I traveled to the Yankee Stadium to see my old classmate Roy Miller. Roy always did like football so after he left Milford he decided to go on to college. He did and is now coach of the famous Army Cadets. They haven't lost a game for the past decade.

While attending this game I ran into Don Matlock who is now playing professional baseball with the Chicago White Sox. We had a long talk and he told me to say Carolyn Brewer not so long ago and she has become the wife of the Porous President of the Purdue University. It seems there was a a bit of six years ago, a Governor of Illinois and Purdue so her husband put his foot down and Carolyn married him. It all ceased.

3. I was also in for "No." I decided to spend a night at the fabulous Hollywood. I was a little trepid at first but I told the man to let me in and let it go. He is the former "hero" of the "Hollywood" film. He told me that they had recently been to Hollywood and he is now going to Hollywood for a screen test. She is a lovely one. (The above is a fiction.)

[illegible]

From New York I managed to get a free ride to Chicago with Captain Lingo in his new "bushy" truck. Captain Lingo's brother Jim is boat buyer with the bookkeeping at home and Sandy does most of the driving.

[illegible]

He also told me that he had been told to get away from the in state of Illinois.

While in Chicago, I ran across a Jimmy Jones who had a big, long hair tied in a bun. When asked the obvious question of why he had it that way, he said it was his "Hole-Flattener." "Hole-Flattener" are going out well lately. Haven't lost a game yet.

From Chicago I traveled to Ft. to Florida for a two week vacation there. Nothing to do but lie in the sun. I saw Rosalie Hartman at St. Petersburg, Fla. From there I went to Miami Beach to the famous Hodge-McCoy Summer home. There I spent the remainder of my vacation and talked over old times with Bob and Don. They are both single and from what I hear two of the most eligible bachelors in the country.

SENIOR PLAY

Lois Van Hove, Phyllis Collins, Ivan Cox, Carolyn Brewer, Bob McCoy, Louise Zinn, Gilbert Schief, Gloria Evans, Lon Hodge, Gene Callahan.

SKIDDING

The Senior Class Play was presented November 17, Friday evening with more than 30 patrons enjoying the hilarious comedy story of a typical American family. The play "Skidding" was presented in three acts from the original story on which the "Andy Hardy" series of motion pictures is based. It was ably cast and staged under the direction of Donald Hike, speech instructor, with Gene Callahan portraying the role of "Andy", an exuberant teenager, and Carolyn Brewer the part of Marion, an enterprising recently graduated from college and in love with Wayne Trestor III, a slave owner's son from an aristocratic Eastern family played by Bob McCoy. Supporting members of the cast included Phyllis Collins as Aunt Maria, Lois Van Hove as Mother Hardy, Ivan Cox as Judge Hardy, Gloria Evans and Louise Zinn as the married sisters, Gilbert Schief as George, and Lon Hodge as a breezy politician. Supporting the re-creation of Little Hardy. Family problems arise when the two eldest daughters come home to mother with imagined marital difficulties. Mocked at their failure, Mother Hardy goes home to her mother. The scene of the play is enlivened by the adolescent antics of "Andy" and hilarious scenes of the married daughters when they come home to live.

The members of the cast expressed their appreciation to Mr. Hike for his direction by presenting him a gift between scenes.

CLASS POEM

Richard Allen--Dick to the students here,
Who is a senior this year.
To classes he may be late,
But in football he does rate.

When Carolyn Brewer, a business course takes,
The G's and L's are constantly she rakes.

Dolores Brutlag, who we know very well,
Is a senior and not quite so shy.
Her lessons she has everyday,
For in the end she says it will pay.

Don Buhrmester, he has such twinkling eyes,
They must be the cause of many sighs.
His car, you can see most any night,
As it glides swiftly out of Joy's sight.

There's "Elbow" Buss, he's a pretty nice guy,
In billiards and pool, he's an expert right nigh.

Gene Callahan, of the hog raising clan,
You always see with a book in his hand.

Phyllis Collins, who is so cute,
Find's "Harold's" mind runs in the same shoot.

Ivan Cox, such a problem for me,
He's the best Plane Geometrist there ever will be.

Now Gloria Evans, who's everyone's pal,
Costs winter miles up and down the trail.

Rosalie Hartman--who is quite stout,
One whom we know little about.
Is a senior and quite shy,
But still she seems to get by.

There's Rosanna Hawthorne, who never asks why,
But goes right ahead and always tries,
All the things the teacher's thinks, she knows,
If she ever studies, it never shows.

Hix goes by the name of Bob,
Around the girls he is a heart-throb.
He blows a big blast on his old clarinet,
And such sounds issue forth, as you've never heard yet!

She dreams and dreams the time away,
But her lessons she has everyday.
I wish there were something we could do,
To wake Kay up for a while, don't you?

Don Hedge to Florida has been,
A nice warm tan from the sun did win.

Among us we have a knight of old,
No other than Jerry, so we are told.
Who sits on the davenport night after night,
That is--until Dad appears in sight.

Maralyn is as quiet as a mouse,
And never noisy about the school house.
She's always there when it comes to work,
And in her lessons she does not shirk.

She goes out with Jim all year,
Her name will be Brummett very near.
Laughing and happy and always real gay,
Sandy's quite busy the livelong day.

Frieda Luening--she strives energetically,
On her you can depend,
You'll find her ever faithful and loyal to the end.

Next Ralph Mann he's got plenty of zip,
Full of the "Old Harry" with plenty of grit.

Next we have McCoy with his graceful stride,
Round and round the gym he glides,
He runs the mile and comes in strong,
And believe me it doesn't take long.

Roy to school is always late,
I suppose he has too many dates.
Of the many love affairs he's had,
All of them have turned out bad.

Only one boy in Typing II,
The course which he is now through.
Natschke is the name he goes by,
The rate of his words is always high.

Here we have Pollins, the womans man,
He sends them letters and flowers when e'er he can,
He blows either east or west,
He seems to like the gals the best.

Bill, with his boots and ten gallon hat,
He runs in a herd wherever he's at.
He loves entertaining the fairer sex,
And peddles his crooning by the peck.

Carl Smith, we haven't spoken of before,
Sure is a whiz on the basketball floor.

Blue, blue eyes and golden hair,
Never is caught upon the stairs.
In case you don't know who this may be,
It is none other than Lois T.

Pita Todd, a big, strong, good fellow,
Fun and he's a real good fellow.

Dave Van Hovel, tall, lean and lanky, studious and wise,
No one can ever say that he never tries.
Dave brooks the gap as an electrician,
When there is work to be done, call Van Hovel.

Lois Van Hovel, we have met,
Rides around in a Chevrolet.
Some day you will meet her,
And she'll be Mrs. Decker.

Louise Tina, many a trip to Chicago she makes,
Her Great Lakes duties she then forsakes.
To take in, she says, every show,
But you never know.

--Rosalie Hartman

Junior Class History

In the fall of '48, we Freshmen entered the halls of M. T. H. S. confused and frightened. We finally became accustomed to our classmates and teachers. We elected as our President, Bonnie Parish; Vice-President, Suzanne Callahan; Secretary-Treasurer, Bob Crawford; and Student Council members, John Piersol and Joyce Walker. Our sponsors were Miss Alderson and Mr. Turnbaugh. Homecoming was our first big activity. Our queen candidates were Suzanne Callahan and Joyce Walker.

The following fall saw us back to school with higher hopes and success for the new year. To have a good start we elected the following class officers: President, Charles Hasselbring; Vice-President, Andy Hassen; Secretary-Treasurer, Suzanne Callahan, and Student Council members were Nadine Newton and Robert Crawford. Our class sponsors were Miss Maxine Bloom and Mr. Elmer Peters. With determination to win this year, we chose Ruth Buss and Rose Ann Smith as our homecoming queen candidates. We were delighted when Ruth succeeded in being crowned queen. In March 17, we had the pleasure of sponsoring the St. Pat's Dance. We had John Piersol's orchestra supply the music.

The following September we began the thrill of becoming Juniors. We chose Andy Hassen as President, David Larson, Vice-President; Rose Ann Smith, Secretary, and Joyellen Glover, Treasurer. Student Council members were Marilyn Pfingsten and Delbert Frerichs. Class sponsors were Miss Dittlinger, Mr. Bickett, and Miss Trunskill. We were honored by having Suzanne Callahan chosen as a first team cheerleader. Rose Ann Smith and Ruth Buss were second team cheerleaders. With inspired spirit of our class we sponsored a profitable homecoming. Our Queen candidates were: Nadine Newton, Suzanne Callahan and Rose Ann Smith. Suzanne Callahan was crowned Queen at the dance that evening by Mr. Turnbaugh. Our class was awarded first place on our Homecoming float. Our theme was Trimming Gilman.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1949, forty-one anxious "Freshies" entered M. T. H. S. to begin four years of hard learning. We elected, David Crawford as President; Carrell Marshall as Vice-President; Bernadine Paris as Secretary; Marian Lauterbach as Treasurer. Beverly Davis and Kenneth Ecker were Student Council members. Miss Englund, Miss English and Mr. Piersol served as our sponsors. We elected Beverly Davis and Beverly Doud as queen candidates. We enjoyed two parties during the year.

When we returned our Sophomore year we found that we had lost several members of our class and had gained one. Mr. Hike and Mr. Hitchens served as our sponsors during the year. When we elected class officers, we chose Beverly Davis, President; Glen Longley, Vice-President; and Bernadine Paris, Secretary-Treasurer. Karen Roeder and Fred Focken represented us on the Student Council.

Soon Homecoming came up and we had to elect queen candidates. We chose Beverly Doud, Marge Doud, and Margaret Probasco.

We are looking forward to two more years of learning.

HISTORY

On September 1, 1950, forty-nine Freshmen entered the doors of M. T. H. S. Our first important business was to elect class officers. With the help of our sponsors, Miss English, Mrs. Klueh, and Mr. Piersol we elected Wayne Rothgeb, President; Sylvia Allen, Vice-President; Roy Gossett, Secretary; and Elaine Lehman, Treasurer. Our student council members are Gloria Walker and Bob Beatty.

Being new in school we found ourselves being initiated into many unfamiliar clubs and organizations.

We did not participate in many activities although we did take part in homecoming. Our queen candidates were: Elaine Lehman, Gloria Walker, and Marlene Bury.

The 1950 Football Season

Wilford---7	---0	---0	---0

Although the football season wasn't as successful as many students anticipated it was a good year as far as candidates for the team were concerned. One real encouraging point was the fact that 12 Freshman boys were out for the sport the entire season and some really showed good promise for the future.

The returning lettermen who will be back next year, are Dave Crawford, Donnie Stebbins, "Dude" Shoufler, Alfa McCann, Bob Smith, Andy Hassen, Kenny Ecker. With these returning lettermen and some big boys from grade school coming over things are looking brighter than it has in the past few years. Other lettermen this year who will be lost by graduation are Captain Don Buhrmester, Dick Allen, Ivan Cox, Don Hodge, Kenny Rollins, Gene Callahan, Norman Doud who is now in the U. S. Marines, and Ralph Mann who joined the Army.

Another reason the boys should be in a winning attitude for the football season approaching is the fact that they will be all decked out with new uniforms when opening game comes around next year.

Even though the team failed to win a game this year it was without doubt a season in which much was learned about the game as well as a lot learned about good sportsmanship which is very important in life today.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

1950-1951 Basketball Season

Much was learned during the basketball season of the past year concerning fundamentals and the putting to use of good sportsmanship. Results for this year show six wins and fourteen losses.

Bob McCoy broke our free throw record with a .655 percentage. The record before was held by Paul Schaumburg. Letter winners and the winners of the training attitude awards for both basketball and football will be announced later in the year at the athletic banquet. The picture above shows the regulars on our first team. Below is the final score of each game of the season:

D. A. R.

Dolores Brutlag was chosen by the members of the senior class as the D. A. R. award winner. Three seniors, each a senior, were nominated with these qualities kept in mind: dependability, service, patriotism. These nominations were then submitted to the seniors who picked the final winner. The award was sponsored by the Princess Wach-e-kee Chapter.

DA R SOCIETY

The D. A. R. Society is the only honorary society in the school. To be eligible for this society is considered a great honor. The requirements for eligibility for this society are: citizenship, character, and service. The members of the society are chosen by the seniors.

The members of the society are: Mr. Turnbaugh, and Charles Hasselbring.
Donald Buhrmester, Carolyn Brewer, Dolores Brutlag, and David Van Doren.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club, sponsored by Mr. Hitchens and Miss Dittlinger, began this year with an enrollment of 35 members. Officers were: President, Don Buhrmester; Vice President, Andy Hassen, Secretary-Treasurer, Phyllis Beatty; Reporter, Walter Orcutt.

There was a meeting every month and the programs were of scientific knowledge. The Science Club held a bake sale in March and the proceeds went to the Polio Fund, a sum of about $22. Later in May the Science Club went on a trip to Starved Rock for their annual science trip. We know they all had a good time.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Under the leadership of Mr. Turnbaugh, the Student Council elected as their officers: President, Don Bahrmester; Vice President, Andy Hassen; Secretary, Beverly Davis; and Treasurer, Rosanna Hawthorne.

The Student Council had several helpful improvements for the school this year. They had several films for the assembly programs; posted clean-up signs for keeping the school clean; sold candy every noon; sent for mirrors for the girls restrooms; started the school newspaper by putting out the first edition and then formed a Press Club which took control.

They plan to send Marilyn Pfingsten and Karen Roeder to the Student Council Convention.

Swine Project

The Junior-Senior Agriculture class is just finishing up their swine project. The hogs were secured from Charles Smith and Max Crawford. The class and Mr. Bickett went up to the local bank and talked to Mr. Davis and then borrowed money for the project. All work is to be done by the ten boys and Mr. Bickett.

The feeding program was carried out on a turn-about basis, where every boy did his share of the work. A small part of the lot north of the agriculture building was rented and repaired so that we could fatten hogs. The average daily gain for the 40 day period was 1.5 lbs. but during the last 10 days the average daily gain was 1.8 which is a very good gain. The hogs were fed shelled corn and 35 per cent hog supplement for the whole period. They balanced their own ration out of a feeder.

When the hogs were shipped Monday they averaged around 200 lbs. They were trucked to Chicago by Fred E. Bahrwester. The boys of the class and Mr. Bickett will follow the hogs up to Chicago on Wednesday and follow them through the pens and into Swift's Packing Plant. There they will see the carcasses of the ten hogs they raised.

Coming Events

The Milford F. F. A. is carrying on many events such as Garden Seed Sales which are being ordered and sold now. The boys have really gone to work on them and this activity will undoubtedly be a great success. About half of the hog troughs ordered have already been made and are selling for $1.25.

The Band Club has been in an active mood this year. The annual concert was held on March 10 with the theme "St. Patrick's Day." The Irish melodies were dug up and a number of solos and "bare believes" were given. The band enjoyed this time of merriment.

The district solo contest was held on March 31 at Gilman. The following people went out: Phyllis Collins, alto saxophone, Ray Lutz, baritone saxophone, Ann Hixson, soprano, Gloria Evans, Carolyn Brewer, Joyce Walker, and Suzanne Callahan, clarinet quartet; Sandra Thomas, flute, Henry Ecker, piccolo, Gordon Pratt, cornet, Ron Davis, trumpet, Joyce Walker, twirling; Chuck Hasselbring, baritone and trombone.

The Band Parents' Club and the school Board have fixed up the band room so that it is a light green color and very beautiful drapes have been hung at the windows. The band members certainly enjoy the atmosphere of this new room.

The Vocal Music Department has had a very busy and successful year. The early part of the year was spent in preparation for the Iroquois County Music Festival, for which we were the host school. Over 500 pupils were here for the day and from them Charles Hasselbring was selected to sing the solo part. The program was under the direction of Mark Biddle of Knox College.

The Chorus did not present a Christmas concert but almost all the members took part in various church services--many as soloists.

The spring was spent in preparation for contests. Charles Hasselbring and the Boys Quartet were awarded first division in the District and went to State. The last item on the calendar is a spring concert to be given May 6. The theme is to be--A Day With Music.

Three smaller groups who performed many times for community activities were the Boy's Quartet, Girl's Sextet, and Girl's Trio. The Boy's Quartet gained so much fame that it was invited to sing for the County Teachers Institute. The Girl's Trio was one of the first place winners at the Junior Women's Club Talent Show. The Sextet was active as usual in various clubs and programs.
